

The leading international exhibition for process, drinking & waste water in China & Southeast Asia

AQUA
TECH CHINA

11-13 DEC 24

THE BEST OPPORTUNITY TO ENTER THE MARKET OR EXPAND YOUR BUSINESS IN CHINA

The steady growth in demand for (clean) water combined with promoting environmental protection and strong enforcement of new regulations creates huge opportunities for international companies specialised in (waste) water technologies in China. Aquatech China is the only trade show in China focusing entirely on water.

Aquatech China is the leading water technology trade show in China, covering all aspects of water: drinking water, industrial water, waste water treatment, sludge treatment, smart water solutions and water management. Aquatech China attracts exhibitors and water professionals from all over the world.

CHINA – YOUR OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

STRONGER STRATEGIC PRESENCE

Based on the huge development and growing demand of water treatment and water technology industry in China, RAI Amsterdam has decided to upgrade Aquatech China, and to accelerate its strategic presence in the Asia-Pacific region. Aquatech China 2024 will be held from 11th - 13th Dec 2024 at Shanghai New International Expo Center (SNIEC).

ALL ABOUT WATER

Aquatech is all about water and solely about water: it is Aquatech's firm belief that the complexity of the challenges surrounding water and the environmental impact requires full focus worldwide. The programme includes water/wastewater treatment, transport & storage, process control technology & process automation, point of use / point of entry and other areas for comprehensive display.

EXTENDED KNOWLEDGE PROGRAMME

Aquatech China features in-depth exchanges and discussions on various topics such as sustainable water development, digital solutions for water treatment, water resources management, water ecological restoration, membrane technology development, ultra-pure water, desalination, urban water, zero industrial water discharge and climate change.

RAI CHINA - OUR EXPERTS IN SHANGHAI

Aquatech China is organised by RAI Amsterdam and RAI China. The international team consists of experienced professionals, uses extensive databases, stakeholders network and media relations to build up a valuable platform for the water industry.
